

Watson Ramsbottom Private Client Free Estate Planning Offer

The Watson Ramsbottom Partnership Private Client Team are pleased to announce the launch of our free Estate Planning Report offer available to clients both existing and new.

Our team of solicitors and lawyers will, at no cost and no obligation to you, prepare (following a brief initial discussion) an Estate Planning Report showing the options available to you and the potential benefits that having your personal affairs in order can bring to both you and your family. The Report will cover many issues including safeguarding assets from being used to assist in paying residential care fees, reducing inheritance tax payable by your children, protecting your children in the event of remarriage of your spouse or partner, and administering your affairs in the event that you were to lose mental capacity.

Stuart Maher, head of the Private Client team at Watson Ramsbottom said “We believe that it is fundamental necessity that all clients should have their personal affairs in order to suit their individual circumstances and in these difficult economic and financial times, we are pleased to announce the launch of our free service. My colleagues and I will be happy to advise you on the options available to you and at no cost or obligation to you. This coupled with our transparent pricing policy for our advice within the Private Client team means that our service gives no nasty surprises should you require further advice from any of the elements in your free Report”.

If you wish to discuss our free Report in any more detail or require anymore information generally, please contact Stuart Maher or any of our offices who will be happy to discuss the matter with you.
