

Forced Marriage -WRP Partner trains Police and Social Services

Rachel Horman provided training on the topic of Forced Marriage to the Legal Profession, Police and Social Services on the 9 December 2010 at the request of Tameside Safeguarding Children's Board. Rachel said that she felt that the training had been a great success which was reflected in the feedback "Hopefully the professionals will now be more confident in dealing with victims affected by Forced Marriage and will know exactly where to go for solutions to this complex issue". For more information on his topic contact Rachel Horman