

New Accreditation for WRP Partner

The Head of the Watson Ramsbottom Partnership Private Client Team Stuart Maher was recently successful in passing the STEP Administration of Estates examination in May 2011. Stuart, who heads the Private Client team and is based at the firm's Great Harwood office, has committed to becoming an accredited Trusts and Estates practitioner over the next 2 years.

All at Watson Ramsbottom wish him well as he continues with his studies to expand his knowledge and become an accredited member of the Society of Trust & Estate Practitioners, and our clients are sure to reap the benefits that the added knowledge will bring to Stuart and his team.
