

WRP ESTATE PLANNING - BEAT VAT !!!

Take advantage of our free initial consultation in respect of your Will, personal affairs and estate planning and beat the VAT rise schedule for January 2011.

For the remainder of 2010, The Watson Ramsbottom Partnership are offering a free initial consultation for all our private client, with a view to getting your affairs in order and taking advantage of the lower rate of VAT charged on our services until the end of 2010.

Our specialist team of advisors can consider all aspects of your personal affairs, including specific advice on:

- the suitability of your Wills and appropriate updates that may be of benefit to you to preserve your hard-earned wealth for your family;
- the appropriateness of powers of attorney to protect you and assist in administering your affairs in the event that your physical or mental health was to deteriorate;
- the options available to you if you have concerns with regards to your family home, in the event of the homeowner requiring costly residential care;
- planning to reduce your liability to inheritance and capital gains tax. You have worked hard to earn your money – don't let the taxman have more than he needs to have!
- relieving the worries relating to what care you would like to receive if your health was to deteriorate, and specifically what types of care you do not wish to receive in such circumstances.

Contact our offices below for a free initial consultation in order that we can set out our advice to you without obligation.
